cent clean sweep of the Faculty indicated acree. It looked as if they had aroused themselves to the importance of action, and were really going to do something. We thought they were going to imitate the com-mundable action of the Board of Visitors of the State Military Academy a few years since. They were blamed for their action. We did not join in the cry; because there was some nerve indicated, and nerve, although it may blunder at first, will come out right in the end. But whatever propriety there may have been in their first action, they whatever impropriety, they have, by their own action, confessed it. They have stul tified themselves, and acted with timid grannyism. They have been on the stage of action too long. Most of them have reach ed that age when the cry of conservatism makes them sink terrified in their seats and palsied in action. Their former action ndicated progress, but that spectre of conservation, which is so often and so unrighteously appealed to, raising her bony fingers and scowling her shrivelled countenance. tyrannized again, and frightened them from their propriety. There is a power behind the throne, we apprehend, that needs more watching than the throne itself. It has whown itself in most of the professional elections, and could not have exercised more power and control over night-capped grau nies than it has over some of the members of the Board. We spoke sometime ago of Doctors "diagnosing!" But it seems now that we used too dignified a term; it was among the students. As a professor no one doubts his ability. Then they proceed.

All of interest being soon seen there, af competency. They re-elected Mr. Rivers, and the Messrs, LeCoute. Mr. Pelham, Mr. Reyholds and Mr. McCay they refused to rejustate, and substituted Mr. McCandless in the chair of Roman Literature, and Mr. Whitefoord Smith in Sacred Literature. Dr. LaBorde and Mr. Barnwell they left in suspense. In the first election upon competency, Mr. McCay was thrown overboard wlong with Mr. Pelham and Mr. Reynolds.
Mr. LaBorde and Mr. Barnwell were left evenly balanced in the scales. So suspended, it was thought they would grow either Wednesday and Thursday.
"The hopeful meantime" has rolled

In that brief "meantime" Mr. McCay, whose competency we have never heard questioned, is declared to be still incompetent.

Messrs LaBorde and Barnwell have turned the scales in their favor-have grown more weighty; while Messrs. Pelham and Reynolds have been put in the balance again, and are now declared "not wanting." He is then elected President pro tem. This he declines. So they conclude to leave the ing declined. Different trustees have their personal preferences, and in the confusion, and their readiness to retreat from their former spasmodic effort at boldness and progress, they abandon the whole issue of competency, and reinstate all the professors, ex-cepting Mr. McCay. Like the old Stevard's Hall affair, they made issue with the students, hastily broke ground with them, and then deliberately surrendered and granted them what they asked for. For tear of being thought weak and yielding, dents, talk boldly about the insubordination and presumption of "Young America," and then finally prove themselves doubly weak by backing out bunglingly.

Are Messrs. Pelham and Reynolds now they? If they do not, what is the College curate shooting. There were, however, several shots in the "bull's-eye." tator to act in the meantime, as is usual in times of trial and great danger? Or have awarded to Mr. Martin, private; the second, tator to act in the meantime, as is usual in they fled from the field and left their pa-tient to die? If, after meeting, they had The last shot was fired as the ray simply declared that the College was in sun were seen richly glimmering only upon such a disorganized condition that they the lofty pines. We immediately returned could not secure the services of competent, to camp, and attacked valuantly the victuals 5 men, we could have understood their action. which had been bountifully prepared. But, no, they do a little patch work; and then abscond to let it stand or fall as to encamp with the Company; but some, chance may determine. If the professors not preferring the restrictions of camp to come of the College?

Everything now rests with the Legislaof that body do not make a clean sweep of the entire Board, then the people should quarter, inake a clean sweep of them. There is something wrong, and stone after stone must be removed until the very foundation it. The "hopeful meantime" must be the pin upon which the friends of the institution will hang future expectancy.

From the Greenville Patriot and Mountaineer.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA COLLEGE.—The turn to the College. This threat on the part of the students is not calculated to deter the Trustees from a conscientious discharge of their public trust. On the contrary, it would rather influence them to se- being the commanding officer. lect new Professors. For those young gen-

na. A parcel of boys in College rebelling, expelling their President, breaking up the College, and censuring and threatening the Board of Trustees. Emphatically, we say, the College must be governed or broke up. The expense to the State is enormous. Each student educated there costs the State one busand dollars. The annual expenses of the College are at least thirty thousand dol lars. Not more than thirty young men graduate on an average. This makes each graduate cost the State one thousand dollars. With that sum he might be educated and clothed in the highest Colleges in the United States! A large portion of the tax payers, too, never send their sons to College. They cannot afford to educate their sons thoroughly, and the State has said to them, your sons cannot enter the College walls without a thorough education up to a certain point, and if they enter the College they must take a general course, which requires four years. Very often the tax payer and supporter of the College would be glad to send his son to College to pursue a particular branch of study. He could afford to support him there for a year or two; but this privilege he is denied. Ought not the College then to be thrown open to all who seek an education? Let the student come well prepared if he can, but let him come whether thoroughly prepared or not. Let him stay four years in College if he can afford to, otherwise allow him to stay just as long as his means and time will admit.

> From the Charleston Mercury. Anniversary of Eutaw.

MESSES. EDITORS: On the morning of the 7th, my friend and I might have been found making our way, upon ho seback, to the Eutaw battleground.

A ride of an hour and a half carried us to the field upon which the American army encamped the night before and after the battle. It is a field most admirably adapted by nature for an encampment—presenting much the appearance of the enclosed portion of the letter C, sloping gradually from the centre to all sides; a deep ravine, covered with a thicket, renders it inaccessible to cavalry, except at a small opening, fronting At their first meeting they called upon all the professors to resign. This they did. Then they cleared the President of all improvement against him as a gentleman, peeted, from the speculative genius of Voung America, there was a mighty upon the country.

ed to reorganize with distinct reference to ter a short detention we resumed our jour ney. Stopping a mile below, at Mr. Jacob Dantzler's, to water our horses, we were informed that his was the only house upon the road from there to the Eutaws, a distance of seven miles. Prompted by an "aching void," we accepted an invitation to dine. We were regaled with all the nice things so plentiful upon a properly conducted farm. Ordering our animals soon after, which look ed considerably improved by the horsetile treatment they had received, we continued our journey. The monotony of a straight-cunning road was occasionally relieved by lighter or heavier by the last meeting of the juxtaposition here and there of large white gates, opening to avenues, at the farther end of which were situated dwellings, whose snowy whiteness, seen through green foliage which almost hid them from view, presented quite a picturesque appearance. They seem to have been built upon the idea that "distance lends encl antment to the view;"—they were all situated from a mile to ahalf mile off the road.

We arrived upon the battle ground about cription, from the stately coach to the "onehorse cart," scattered promiscuously around vacancy unfilled. An election then is held the encampment. The Eutaw Riflemen for Mr. Reynolds' place. In hot pursuit of competency they elect a Mr. Hoyt. They got into a "muss" about the other professorships, Messrs. McCandless and Smith have annually the battle of the Eutaws-a laudable object, which has enlisted in its behalf the sympathies of the adjoining Parishes, and which should place them under the special patronage of the entire State. The military and gentlemanly bearing of its members, the social position and ability of its officers, show them worthy of all the confidence that may be reposed in them. After evolutions, in which they evinced much tact, they proceeded to the site of the memorable old brick house, in front of which they first array themselves against the studistance was eighty paces-their shooting was hardly average, owing to the very short time they had been in possession of their arms. I believe that Uncle Sam's firelocks have to be put in special training going to accept their position? How can before they can be relied upon for very ac-

The last shot was fired as the rays of the

An invitation was then given to all determine not to be restored, what is to be- the unfettered movements of outsiders, cleared the ring. Accepting a special invitation of Capt. G., we remained in camp. ture. The Trustees have thrown the res- After all visitors had retired, we bivousked ponsibility upon them, and, if the members with all the punctilo of an army expecting an attack every moment from an unknown

It was the current report that an attack would be made sometime during the night, but naught disturbed the quietude save the is reached, if so much be required to detect regular relief of the sentinels, or the journal laugh of a few who prized the spiritual kisses of a corpulent bettle to those of balmy sleep.

During a portion of the night the clouds were dark and lowering, yet the morning of the 8th dawned bright and beautiful- know why they should not rise in rebellio students have issued a circular addressed to not a cloud to be seen All nature appear- some day, and take away the reins of gothe Trustees, declaring that if the old Production of the day. By eight vernment from us poor masculines. There fessors are not replaced they will not red o'clock A. M. the Eutaw Riflemen were are now two ladies stopping at Barretti, on manœuvring upon the field. They were Cape Island, N. J., who are equal to the joined by the St. Mathew's Riflemen, and the best of us on bowling and shooting. One

I know nothing of military tactics, and one, in the meanwhile, was shooting a pistlemen have already acted (a large number am, therefore, unable to describe all the tol match with two gentlemen from this spective candidates. Sauer krout, who adof them at least) in such a way as not to make their return to College desirable on that when a command was given, they shots, at ten paces, and the other two shots savage, and used up his opponent with the the part of the Trustees. The College, in obeyed it without hesitating, and in perfect came within seven-eighths of an inch! She the opinion of the Board of Trustees, would order. The charge of the Cavalry and the then fired twenty-six shots at a swinging long head as your man." To which Pretget on much better and more harmoniously without them. It is very questionable whether they would be allowed to return
whether they would be allowed to return
whether they would be allowed to return

Two hours were thus spent upon the field.
The army and spectators then assembled in no necessity for any gentleman's going into

The army and spectators then assembled in
no necessity for any gentleman's going into

The army and spectators then assembled in
no necessity for any gentleman's going into

Nothing or each sould standard under the proverbial Philoso and a swinging two and abalf inches in diameter, and block, struck it fourteen times! There would be no necessity for any gentleman's going into

Nothing or each sould standard under the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
by responded, "Von ass yourself. Your man's head p'haps twice as long, but my Nothing or eath sould standard under the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
by responded, "Von ass yourself. Your man's head p'haps twice as long, but my Nothing or eath sould standard under the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
by responded, "Von ass yourself. Your man's head p'haps twice as long, but my Nothing or eath sould standard under the proverbial Philoso
and the proverbial Philoso
by responded, "Von ass yourself. Your man's head p'haps twice as long, but my and graduate. But really, we have a most the grove grown upon the site of the brick the field to settle this last lady's quarrels. [New York Mercury.]

from the fatigues of the field, the orator of the day, Lientenant McConner, was present ed, who entertained us, in a most delight ful manner, for an hour. From the many circumstances which a subject of the kind naturally presents, he made the happiest reflections, and treated them in a masterly manner. In the composition of his speech, which was to the composition of his speech. which was terse and eloquent, he evinced much research, and in the delivery much capacity. In his conclusion, he was truly eloquent. When the applause which followed had subsided, all were invited to partake of refreshments, which stood pre pared in a neighboring grove.

A barbecue was there given, convenient arrangements for which had been made by gentlemen of St. John's Parish, who spared neither pains nor money. The table formed three sides of a square, furnished with implements for six hundred and food for two thousand. Everything that could have been expected, and even more, was furnished in profusion. More eyes than one sparkled from a high pressure of the "Oh! be joyful." Several toasts were then read, one of which drew out the Hon. Wm. Porcher Miles in a short but racy speech. Charleston may well be proud of such a son. His career promises to be a brilliant one. A man unpledged to any measures, who has proven himself firm and immovable by outside pressures-for whom party name with out principle has no charms—these, com-bined with rare talents, constitute him the man to whom Carolina may well look for some brilliant achievements. A toast to the Charleston bar trought out a member of it in a few very appropriate remarks.

A subscription was then commenced for the purpose of erecting a monument upon the battle ground. As it was growing late, and we had some distance to ride, we did not remain to see what success was me with; but, I think, if there was some regularly appointed agents to whom remittances might be made, that a sufficient amount would soon be subscribed. This has been neglected too long, and it is time that the people were fully awakened to its impor people were fully awareness tance. Very respectfully, &c., GEORGIAN. Four Holes, Sept. 13, 1857.

CINCINNATI, September 7th, 1857 .- A cultivator of the grape, I thank you for he great interest you have always taken in this new branch of American agriculture; and particularly for the opportunity you now give me for refuting a most erroneou statement, which lately appeared under the editorial head in the Vivvay (Ind.) News, to the effect that "the Cincinnati Horticultural Society had it under consideration to de clare grape culture in the United States : failure," that "the business would prove ruinous to those who attempted it," and that "the only way Mr. Longworth made it remunerative was by the adulteration of his wines," &c. I am happy to say to you that there is no truth in either of these statements. Part of them the editor has since retracted, and part has been controverted A slight nominal penance sufficed to reconby one of his neighbors, a grape grower in that vicinity, who says that fifteen new vineyards have been laid out near that town. and that the culture of the vine has received a new impetus. The first attempts were made on the rich bottom lands of the river and necessarily failed. The hills are now selected in preference, and with promise of complete success.

That this crop is subject to the casualties of other fruit crops cannot be denied, but experience has proved that it is about peace. Nothing, he could clearly see, was Thornwell, to make his influence wear a find that already some three or four hundred diest fruit. The average yield for a series cover again, and seek refuge in the bosom screen when the sun burns—and a pillow in lings for the pun. "Nay, owe me (Naome,") of years, in fair localities, and with com mon attention, is at least 200 gallous to the acre. In good positions, and with extra culture, 300 gallons. One hundred gallons per acre will more than pay the cost of cal tivation, and leave something for profit. For the last two years the crop has been short in this vicinity, but in Missouri and ever that might at my time be embraced Georgia it is very good this year. So it is by so bloodthirsty and unchristian an ad with most crops, varying with the seasons in different sections of the country.

To my certain knowledge, the grape is cultivated for making wine, in 18 States of especially in the West and Southwest. The sale of grape vine cuttings in Cincinnati alone was over a million and a half, and of roots 300,000, last year; and about the same the year previous. This does not look like failure. The charge that Mr. Longworth adulterates his wine is too preposterous to be believed here or elsewhere. It is not his interest to do so, and certainly not his inclination. No man has been more particu lar to keep his wine perfectly pure than Mr. L. It was his pride and his hobby to introduce pure native wines to the American people; more for the reputation of it than the profit-for he was rich enough without it

This cultivation has been opposed from the first by the leaders of the ultra temperance men, whom nothing will satisfy but some political hobby that will carry them into office, like the "Maine Law." But the good sense of the reasonably temperate induces them to believe that it is the best aid their cause can enlist.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of the same date, says: "It is a fact, of which the evidence is of the most convincing character, that the grape, for the purpose of winemaking, is now successfully cultivated in eighteen of the States of the Union, and The chromatic photo-printing process is an experience is annually demonstrating that the area of territory suited to the profitable culture of the grape in the United States is larger than had been heretofore believed. In this vicinity, we have the positive assurance of gentlemen of character and experience that it is, to say the least, as remunerative as any other branch of agriculture."

[Cor. of the Journal of Commerce.

A FAST WOMAN. - The ladies are becoming dangerously perfect. We really don't glass. are now two ladies stopping at Barretti, on dergo a fixing operation. Francis Marion Troopers, who through the day manœuvred with them, Maj Moorer sion, and two hundred and eighty seven points on her next game, lately. The other

How to Get Rid of a Duel.

Among the various mortifying disquali-cations under which the Irish Catholics la bored, previously to the passage of the Emancipation Bill, the Disarming Act, pro-hibiting them from having in their possession any offensive or defensive weapons, ap-pears to have been not the least galling to our Hibernian fellow subjects; inasmuch as it debarred them in many instances, in cases of real or supposed aggrievance, from that dernier resort, which the natives of the "Emerald Isle" have preferred, from time immemorial, to the more dilatory as well as uncertain redress offered by a court of law. An ungenerous or timid adversary, especially if a member of the Government church, might (as has been more than once the case) evade a hostile meeting with a the case) evade a hostile meeting with a Papist, on the ground of the above-men tioned disqualification.

A circumstance of this kind occurred in Mallow, county Cork, about the latter end of the last century, when the apellant de vised a whimsical and ingenious experi ment to evade the law, and put himself on level with his overscrupulous antagonist. Mr. Flynn, a respectable Catholic hatter, was, or supposed himself, grievously insult ed by Mr. Patrick Doolittle, a tailor, of the Established Church, residing in the same town. Having in vain endeavored to ob tain satisfuction (in the national and current sense of the word,) and being given moreover, to understand that the orthodox tailor magnanimously declined giving him the meeting, for no other reason than, lest by so doing he should be the proximate cause of subjecting Flynn to the penalties in such case made and provided, the spirited hatter resolved on changing his religion pro tempore, and actually read his public recantation, during morning service, in Mallow church. There, as fate would have the books in hand I dos say I have not reit, Mr. Doolittle chanced to be present, and great was his astonishment and consternation at the unexpected, unhoped for conversion of his mortal foe to the true faith! Had it taken place in St. Stephen's Chapei, cerning money matters & I also pronounce he would doubtless have deprecated, in H D Headon as a coward Aug 24 1857 parliamentary language, the "indecent har: ," &c., with which Flynn had deserted his party. Howbeit, the tailor saw and ac-knowledged the necessity of taking immediate measures te avoid bloodshed. He made a precipitate retreat from the church. and took sanctuary in the Roman Catholic chapel which stands in the same street. There, having openly professed himself an unworthy member of the Church of Rome. he was cordially received, and initiated by baptism and other usual ceremonies. Mr. Doolittle, however, had scarcely time to congratulate himself on his escape from the dreaded duello, when he was disagreeably undeceived by a practical illustration of the proverb, "one good turn deserves ano The couragous batter felt indignan at what he could not but consider a paltry sub terfuge; and was not to be put off (like an old beaver) so easily. He therefore took an early opportunity of seeking a confer ence with his quondam priest and tatherconfessor, who found him a willing convert. cile him to the placable church which he had deserted; certainly through interested. but by no means through mercenary, mo-tives. He lamented his backstiding in due form; and renounced the damnable heresies to which, in an unguarded moment, he had subscribed; all this once more in the presence of the tailor, who now began to be convinced that no points of doctrine, however tough and knotty, had strength to with all imaginable speed; sending, at the ter, that their opinions on religious matters mit him, Doolittle, to retain any faith what versary as Flynn. We are assured that the foregoing anec dote, improbable as it may appear, is an absolute fact, well known as such by most the Union, and is rapidly on the increase, of the inhabitants of Mallow; and that every circumstance, even to the names of the polemical warriors, is accurately detailed.

LAST FOND LOOKS .-- When a lady (we are talking of a lady in the full height and breadth of fashion) has got her bonnet and gloves on, and is perfectly ready with her parasol in hand, she always goes back to the looking glass to take a last fond look. Upon our asking "a dear, handsome duchif this was not the truth, and the bean tiful truth, she had the charming candor to state, 'Yes, my dear Punch, it is the truth, but not all the truth. No woman, take my ond is for my husband, that's nothing but just; the third is for my friends, that's only affair, and congratulated herself on having generous; and the last is for my rivals. that's human nature. If the last look satis fies me, then I know it is all right, and I assure you I never take any more.

ingenious mode of printing textile fabrics, by the chemical action of light. It is designed to employ the chemical agency of light in dying or staining textile fabrics; the cloth, whether wool, silk, flax or cotton, being first steeped in a suitable solution, then dried in the dark, and subsequently exposed to the action of light-those parts which are to form the pattern being protect ed by pieces of darkened paper or some other suitable material, attached to a plate of When the desired effect is produced-the time for which varies from two to twenty minutes, according to the process-the fabric is removed in order to un-

HAD HIM THERE.—the following story is old but good. At the time when DeWitt Clinton and Governor Tompkins were contesting New York State, two Dutchmen remark: "You von ass; Clinton twice as man's head more'n twice as tick. Von ass Nothing on earth could stand such a strain

A CARD .- To THE PUBLIC .- A difficulty having arisen between D. L. Stuckley and myself-some of the particulars of which are known in my neighborhood—I feel it due to myself to make the following expo-Some weeks ago I received, through the hands of one John Rhodes, the following note from D. L. Stuckes: H. D. Hearon to insult me from your past conduct you have done so I have I have concluded to demand of you full satisfaction or the satisfaction which a gentleman is always willing to do My friend John Rhodes will hand you this he will inform you the satisfaction which I require of you D. L. STUCKEY

To this effusion I made the following reply:

Sir you have thought proper

Sir: Your note, without date, has been handed to me by your friend Mr. Rhode You do not state wherein I have insulted you, but satisfy yourself by making a per mptory demand for satisfaction of such character as Mr. Rhodes may inform me you require. I do not care to mention the nature of the satisfaction as stated by him, but satisfy myself with returning your note, without further comment.

Respectfully, H. D. HEARON. Respectfully, In explanation of my note, I would state that the satisfaction demanded by Rhodes was the payment by me of one thousand dol-dollars to Stuckey.

After my reply was sent to Stuckey, heard nothing from him; but on last Sun-day I found, posted at Mount Ellon Church, the following "Notice:

NOTICE-H. D. Hearon was a clerke fo e the year 1853, 54 & 55 until I discontinued business from the first of 55 he had ceved the amount of money that I should have as my dets has bin pressin I was fourced to examin my book and I have seen where leaves was Cut out of my Leger Con-

In reply to this beautifully written "No tice," I have only to remark, that what he says in regard to my connection with his books is an unmitigated falsehood, and I challenge him to the proof. As to his opinion of my courage I have nothing to say. It is no disgrace for Darius L. Stuckey to think one a coward. H. D. HEARON.

An old woman who lived near the frontier during the last war with Great Britain. and possessed a marvellous propensity to learn the news, used frequently to make inquiries of soldiers. On one occasion she whom she had frequently saluted before: "What's the news?"

"Why, good woman," said he, "the Inans have fixed a crowbar under Lake Erie. and are going to turn it over and drown

"Oh, mercy, what shall I do?" and away he ran to tell the neighbors of the danger, and inquire of her minister how such a caamity might be averted. "Why," said he, "you need not be alarm-id—we have our Maker's promise that he will not again destroy the world by wa "I know that," returned the old lady hastily, "but he's nothing to do with it it's sses; it will consume your grief as the sun dissolves ice. It is a spring when you are porter meditated, then smiled, and immedi three o'clock P. M. We were surprised to as reliable as the apple, which is our har left him in this emergency, but to break thirsty—a staff when you are weary—a distely proposed to expend a couple of shill

> If we could read the secret history of our enemies, we should find in each man's life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all

Ignorance and conceit are two of the oust qualities to combat. It is easier to dispute with a statesman than a blockhead Rest satisfied with doing well, and leave thers to talk of you as they please.

On the heels of folly treadeth shame; at ie back of anger standeth remorse. Envy no man's talent, but improve thy Medical botany might be restricted al most to the plucking of simples.

ECCENTRIC DAMSEL .-- The Andover (Mass.) Advertiser tells a story of a woman belonging to that town, who had a fa'ling out with her husband, and threatened to drown herself in the "great pond." Her husband was not at first alarmed, but at length she disappeared; soon her bonnet word for it, is satisfied with one look. At stituted. Several persons were engaged in quit the company of young ladies. least, I know that I am not, for (and here dragging in the pond, grappling irons were our duchess laughed, as though she was brought into requisition, but to no purpose pleased with herself and all the world) I All efforts, however, proved abortive, and don't mind telling you, I invariably take the anxious ones were about to give up in four—four good ones. The first look in despair, when lo! and behold, the lost one the glass is for myself, that's fair; the sec-appeared, safe and sound. She had been not "multiply and replenish the earth." the glass is for myself, that's fair; the sec- appeared, safe and sound. She had been seated in a thicket overlooking the whole > a custom in Berwickshire, England, among makes no difference—yez ain't left enough women workers in the field, when their of me for the devil to naturalize no how." backs become much tired by bowing low down while singling turnips with short shanked hoes, to lie down upon their faces to the ground, allowing others to step across the lower part of their backs, on the lumbar region, with one foot, several times, until all pain of fatigue is re-noved. Burton, in his "First Footsteps in East Africa," nar rates a very similar custom in females who lead the camels, on feeling fatigue, and who lie at full length, prone, stand upon each other's backs, trampling and kneading with their toes, and rise like giants refreshed." This custom is called 'jogsi' in Africa; in our country it is "straightening the back."

Coleridge was admiring a water fall in England, when he overheard a well dressed ajestic water-fall!" The poet was so deighted with the epithet he could not resist turning round and saying: "Yes, sir, it is majestic; you have hit the expression; it is better than fine, sublime, or beautiful." The unknown critic, flattered by the compliment, pursued his strain of admiration in this wise: "Yes, I really think it is the majestickest, purtiest thing of the kind I ever

The Washington Globe was the ordered invent

The Washington Hills was the angle invent of the following terrific aquits:

A stands for Accidents, frequent:

B for the Bungling that brings them to pear,
C is the Cheapness, the sole end and aim.
D of Directors who're free from all blane;
E for Expenses, diminished by half,
F for the Few servants kept on the staff;
G a slow Goods train, one man to mind it.
H a High pressure express close behind it.
I an Incline, where to stop takes so long:
J is the Junction, with point all turned wrong;
K is the Knowledge of danger shead,
L by the Lights turned (too late) into red;
M is the Mystery how it took place.
N the 'Nobody to blume in the case.'
O stands for Officers, alcepy or drunk;
P for the Permanent way which had sunk;
Q is the Quagnires o'er which it had passed;
R for the Rails, which were wearing out fast;
S for the Signal the driver don't mind.
T for the Train some two hours behind;
U is a Uniform rate of speed;
V a Velocity frightful indeed;
W is the Wisdom (2) by which is to directed.
X is 'Xcursion train, quite unexpected;
Y is Yourself; if you travel, our measures.
Z is a new Zest will impart to your pleasures.

TO THE PRINTER Permit a giddy, trifling girl For once to all a poet's corner; She cares not how the critic's snarl, Or beaus and macaronis scora her.

She longs in print her lines to see, Oblige her, (sure you can't refuse it,) And if you find her out, your FEE Sha'l be to Kiss her, if you choose it.

A SINGULAR FACT.-A stock raiser Fayette Co., Kentucky, lost eight colts one ason, four of them thorough-breds, and four of them common scrub stock. He amputated the legs of all of them, and boil ed off the flesh, cleaning the bones thoroughly, to learn by examination what dif ference, in respect of bone, there was be-tween pure blooded and common ones. On aking the bones of the thoroughbreds, and olding them up to the light, he noticed hat they were almost transparent, as much so as white corn. He tried the same experiment with the bones of the inferior stock. They were opaque, and transmitted light no more than buffalo horn. He then tested the bones by weight, and found the thorough-bred by far the heavier, showing their superior substance and solidity. They were hard and dense as ivory.

ROBBING A PRINTER .- Monday morning. about half-past three o'clock, as a printer employed in the Buffalo Courier office was on his way to his work, he was stopped by two men, who emerged from the basement of St. James' Hall, and presented a pistol. demanding his money. Of course he handed over what he had, but being a printer, the whole sum of his cash on hand amounted to only 26 cents. Robbing a printer, alled to one of those defenders of our rights, highwaymen must have been verdant inand on Monday morning at that! The deed .- Savannah Republican.

> In 1745 hoops were worn as large as now. Sir Robert Strange, fleeing from pursuit after the battle of Colluden, was concealed in the crisis of his trouble by a young lady, who offered to shelter him under the ample folds of her petticoat. To this strange proposal, considering all circumstances, it s not strange that he assented to and here remained undiscovered. Either love or gratitude suggested the sequel, and they were subsequently married.

> While at the "artist's exhibition" yester day our reporter was standing a ar Ste phenson's bust of "Ruth." A friend, point ing to the veiled head of the Jewish maid den, said, "It is not every girl that gets such a beau as (Boaz) she did." The re

> Little girl .- "Pa, didn't, you whip me for biting Tommy?' Papa.-"Yes, my child, you hurt him very much?' Little girl.—"Well, then, pa, you ought to whip mamma's music teacher, too, for he bi mamma right in the mouth yesterday, and I know it hurt her, because she get her arms 'round his neck, and tried to choke

> LAMAS FOR THE UNITED STATES .- The Panama Star of the 19th ult. says: M. Eugene Roben, the French naturalist, who lately procured a number of lamas in Peru and Ecuador for the Spanish Government, will, we understand, arrive here from Guavaquil, by the next steame, with a large number of these arimals, which it is intended to introduce into the United States.

Brown had been in love with a young ady, and asked permission to call her by the name of some animal, which reques was granted on condition that she should and shawl were discovered at the water's have the same privilege. On leaving, edge, the alarm spread throughout the Brown said: "Good night, dear." "Goos neighborhood, and diligent search was in night, bore," said she. Brown has since

The Utica Telegraph has an article head ed, "Why Old Maids Multiply." This is something new. It has always been under-

An Irishman who had been reduced to a mere shadow by severe illness, was asked by a physician what he thought of a future date. "Ah! doctor," was his answer, "it Great cry and little wool-an Ethiopian nfant just born.

TEA CULTURE. - A Washington corresponden, gives the following item as to preliminary steps to stroduce the tea culture into the United States: "It will be remembered that a gentleman a series of experiments with the tea-plant, wishing to ascertain whether it would flourish as well in this country as in China. These efforts seemed ing Commissioner of Patents has taken the enterpris-ing Commissioner of Patents has taken the matter in hand. Mr. Brown, the head of the Agricultu-ral Bureau, informs me that Mr. Robert Fortune, who has been employed for several years by the East India Company and the London Horficultural Society to collect seeds and plants in various parts of China, has offered his services to the Patent Of England, when he overheard a well-dressed fice, to visit the northern provinces of that country, stranger saying to his companion, "It is a to procure the seeds of the best varieties of the teaplant, as well as others, with a view of cultivating them in the United States. The Commissioner of Patents, I understand, has responded to this offer, requiring the amount of compensation he may ask, and solicits a paper on the subject from him for the next Agricultural Report." It is reported of H. W. Beecher, the Sharpe's rifle preacher, that he is ever ready to excuse the pec-cadilloes of the boys. He saves them from the police -he pays their fines when they break windows--he tells them he used to like to do it himself. The evering before the 4th of July, the usual Plymouth Church prayer meeting was disturbed by the firing of crackers in the entry and under the windows. Beccher smiled and said, That's somewhat onnoying to us, but I presume the boys enjoy it; indeed, I remember a time when I used to enjoy such bings myself."

188408 14 ISSUES $ 280.00

of lime he will tell you.

IT IS THE BEST MEDICINE RYTANT.
Below we give a few extracts from letters we have received lately regarding the virtues of this medicine.

Dr. S. S. Oslin, of Knonville, Gg., wys.: I have been using your Liverwort and Ter very extensively in my practice for three years pass, and, it is with pleasure I state my belief in my work allostry over all or thick it is recommended."

Aleasrs. Fitzgerald & Benners, writing from Waynesville, N. C. say: "The Livermert and Tar is becoming daily more popular in this Country, and we trink justure so. All who have tried it speak in commendable terms of it, and say it is very beneficial in alleviating the complaints for which it is recommended."

Messrs. Integerald & Benners, writing from Waynesville, N. C., say: The Liverwort and Tar is becoming daily more popular in this Country, and we trink justure so. All who have tried at speak in commendable terms of it, and say it is very beneficial in alleviating the complaints for which it is recommended."

Our Agent in Pickens District, S. C., Mr. B. R. McFall, assures us "that he uses it with great benefit in his own family, and recommends it to his neighbors." He gives an instance of a Negro woman, in his vicinity, who had been suffering with disease of the Lungs for years, attended with set vere cough, who was relieved by the Liverwor and Tar.

Such are the good reports we hear of this Midi cine from all parts of the South. For a report of the surprising cures it has performed in the West vere cough, who was relieved by the Liverwor and Tar.

Such are the good reports we hear of this Midi cine from all parts of the South. For a report of the surprising cures it has performed in the West ern and Northern and Eastern States, we would invite the suffering patient to read the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle. To all we say, hear they have been suffering patient to read the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle.

ern and Northern and Eastern States, we would invite the suffering patient to read the pamphiles which accompanies each bottle. To all we say, have hope, have hope!

TRY THE MEDICINE!!

BE WARNED IN SEASON Beware of Counterfeits and Base Imitations!

The genuine article is signed ANDREW ROOMS the grounde article is signed Annaew Rooms the engraved wrapper around each bottle.
Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Sold wholesale and retail by SCOVIL & MEAD.
on 111 Charters St., bet. Contiand St. Louis, N. O.
Sole Agints for the Southern States, to whom all orders and applications for Agencies must be addressed. SOLD ALSO BY

FISHER & HEINITSH, Spartanburg, So. Ca. DEAN & GOODGION, "W. H. WATSON, Greenville " E. KRUTCH, KENNON & NORRIS, Unionville, S. R. HENRY, Laurensville C. L. HARRIS, & CO., Rutherfordton, N. C Job Printing

PROMPTLY EXECUTED.

Dr. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE LIVER PILLS.

Two of the best Preparations of the Age They are not recommended as Universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports. The VERMIFUGE, for expelling Worms from the human system, has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various animals subject to Worms.

The LIVER PILLS, for the cure of LIVER COM-PLAINT, all BILIOUS DE-RANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c.

Purchasers will please be particular to ask for Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge and LIVER PILLS, prepared by Theming Bros.

SOLE PROPRIETORS, Pittsburgh, Pa., and take no other, as there are various other preparations now before the public, purporting to be Vermifuge and Liver Pills. All others, in comparison with Dr. McLane's, are worthless.

The GENUINE McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills can now be had at all respectable Drug

FLEMING BRO'S. 60 WOOD ST., PITTSBURGH, PA.

Sole Proprietors. SCOVIL & MEAD, New Orleans, General Wholesale Agents for the South, to whom all or-

SOLD BY
FISHER & HEINITSH, Spartanburg, Sc. Co. PISHER & HEINITSH, Spartanbur DEAN & GOODGION, "A. TOLLESON, E. KRUTCH, Greenville, KEENAN & NORRIS, Unionville, JOHN H. HENRY, Laurensville, W. F. PRATT & CO., Newberry, L. P. BARNETT & CO., Yorkville, J. W. HARRIS & CO., Rutherfordto May 7